

---

Diploma Thesis and Final State Exam

---

Diploma Thesis

Thesis Defence is one of the three parts of Final State Exam.

Topic of Diploma thesis should be registered until the end of June in the second semester. Please e-mail your filled registration form to Jana.Markupova@fhs.cuni.cz and send the signed copy to secretary of our study program.

Before you start working on your thesis and before you want to hand it in, please see General Guidelines .

In contact with your narrators, please use solely this Informed consent for processing and accessing personal and sensitive data , which reflects the increased transparency requirements of the EU General Data Protection Regulation (known as the 'GDPR'), effective from May 25th 2018.

If you need an inspiration to find your topic, you may take a look at our \(already defended\) theses and even browse through all of them in the Thesis Repository .

Final State Exam

Final State Exam is the last study obligation and it is composed from three parts:

1. Thesis Defence
2. Contemporary History Research: Theory and Practice
3. Contemporary History in the Czech and International Context

Final State Exam Requirements are listed here .

And what comes after your Final State Exam...? Your graduation!